

Wumpmas World Series is the annual championship for Major League Bocce Ball (MLBB)

The objective of bocce ball is to roll your bocce balls closer to the pallino (small target ball) than your opponent's. Gabby's Garden Edition entails that each opponent must be sipping on a glass of wine or other fun beverage for the duration of the game and be ready to embark on the whimsical journey that is bocce ball <3

Equipment

- A glass of your favorite wine
- A sunshiny day with the surrounding garden in bloom
- 1 pallino (small target ball)
- 8 bocce balls total – 4 balls per team, each team a different color

Playing the Game

- Decide which team goes first with a coin toss or other method
- The first team throws the pallino down the court and throws the first bocce ball
- Teams alternate throwing bocce balls and continue until all balls have been thrown
- You can use a scoring system or just have fun and give credit to whoever was closest
- Finishing your glass of wine or fun beverage by the end of each game is encouraged, but not mandatory
- Garden-inspired outfits are encouraged, but not mandatory

The Wumpmas World Series Major League Bocce Ball winner will receive a golden pallino and a bouquet of fresh flowers :)
